Important notification to all life insurance policy owners impacted by the aftermath of the tornado in Moore, Oklahoma: a 30 day grace period extension will be granted

At Sun Life, we express our deepest sympathy to all those impacted by the tornado.

Beacause of this devastating situation, we are granting an extension to all life insurance policyowners who meet the following three criteria:

- You permanently reside in Moore, Oklahoma or another local area impacted by the recent tornado
- Your county has been declared a natural disaster by the State Governor or the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA)
- The payment for your policy was due within 30 days after the disaster declaration date

If you meet all the criteria outlined above, Sun Life will extend your grace period by 30 days from the original due date.

In addition, if you have re-located as a result of a natural disaster, please call or write to us so we may accurately update your address of record.
